

- cylinder
- all the necessary color-coded hoses to connect the components to each other
- all the necessary regulators and backflow preventers
- setup instructions and a user manual
- a three day hands-on *training course located in West Babylon, New York

- preferably a 100 lb. propane cylinder, but many people use a regular 20 lb. barbeque tank
- an oxygen cylinder, available at any welding gas supplier
- a stand or a cart to mount the system to
- personal protective equipment, including proper ventilation
- *coatings

